From the Minister's Desk

I Will Praise Thee For I Am Fearfully and Wonderfully Made

David realized that he was made. He did not evolve as some modern minds supposes. He praised God for making him; he thank God for constructing this wonderful body that we all have. God made us and not we ourselves. To think otherwise is not to think at all. The only Being that has the power, and knowledge to build man must be above man, and greater than man. Nothing under man, lower than man, or inferior to man can make man. Man was made by Someone greater than man.

Look at the human body. It is made up of nearly a dozen major interrelated systems, each designed for a special function. The skeleton provides a strong framework. Muscles are the engines of the body. Bones provide the system with translating muscular contractions for bodily movement. The fuel and oxygen that keeps muscles working travel through thousands of miles of tubing in the circulatory system, which in turn depends upon the respiratory system to supply the body with oxygen, and the digestive system, where food is broken down into nutrients that can be used as fuel. The urinary system gets rid of processed body wastes. The endocrine system and the nervous system, keep us aware of our surroundings. All of these interlocking systems are contained neatly by the skin. The reproduction system enables human beings the ability to reproduce themselves.

Therefore we ought to continuously praise God for the great job that He has done in giving us existence. "Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, all of whose works are truth, and His ways justice. And those who walk in pride He is able to put down." (Dan. 4:37) Surely if this Gentile king could praise God, the church of Christ has every right to praise, and honor the God of heaven. "Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name." (Heb. 13:15 - NKJV)
